mount lofty ranges | WORLD HERITAGE BID

LANDSCAPE HERITAGE SYMPOSIUM AT THE WAITE INSTITUTE

Date: Monday September 22nd
Time: Gather 9am for 9.15 until 1.30pm Allow at least 10 minutes to walk from the Waite Road Car Park to the Centre.
Location: SARDI Plant Research Centre Auditorium (Level 4, Hartley Grove Entry 2b), Waite Institute, Entry 2, Waite Road, Urrbrae. Please see separate map of the campus for more detail.
Target audience: Mount Lofty Ranges World Heritage Bid Project Steering Group, Project Management Group, Advisory Group members, Elected members of all Council partners, heritage professionals and interested members of the public
Free registration: Michael Flehr <mflehr@ahc.sa.gov.au>

Dr Jane Lennon, a Brisbane-based heritage conservation consultant wrote the first draft of the UNESCO World Heritage Papers no. 26 and has been an assessor of World Heritage cultural landscape nominations. She was a member of the Australian Heritage Council, is on the ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Cultural Landscapes and will talk about ICOMOS's World Rural Landscapes project.

Dr Valeria Paul, currently based at the University of Western Australia will elaborate on his experiences and involvement with landscape heritage in Europe through two case studies linking tourism and planning, and present a paper on WA's Swan Valley as a departure point for discussion and "benchmark" for the Mount Lofty Ranges bid.

Dr Malcolm Cooper Professor (Emeritus), Tourism Management & Environmental Law, Graduate School of Asia Pacific Studies, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, Beppu, Japan, will talk about the potential opportunities and threats of attaining World Heritage status, from a tourism perspective.

Dr Elisa Palazzo, architect, UNESCO cultural landscape consultant and senior lecturer at the University of Adelaide will talk about mapping territorial heritage and identifying the heritage values and attributes of a cultural landscape through combining common local knowledge with local and international expertise, with reference to the World Heritage listing of Bethlehem and Battir in Palestine.

LANDSCAPE HERITAGE SYMPOSIUM AT THE WAITE INSTITUTE

Date: Monday September 22nd
Time: Gather 9am for 9.15 until 1.30pm Allow at least 10 minutes to walk from the Waite Road Car Park to the Centre.
Location: SARDI Plant Research Centre Auditorium (Level 4, Hartley Grove Entry 2b), Waite Institute, Entry 2, Waite Road, Urrbrae. Please see separate map of the campus for more detail.

Target audience: Mount Lofty Ranges World Heritage Bid Project Steering Group, Project Management Group, Advisory Group members, Elected members of all Council partners, heritage professionals and interested members of the public
Free registration: Michael Flehr <mflehr@ahc.sa.gov.au>

Program

9-9.15am: Gather at the Plant Research Centre Auditorium. (Allow at least 10 minutes to walk from the Waite Road Car Park to the Centre.)

9.15am Welcome and introduction to the symposium

9.30am Dr Jane Lennon will talk about ICOMOS's World Rural Landscapes project

9.50am Dr Valeria Paul will elaborate on his experiences with landscape heritage in Europe and WA through case studies linking tourism and planning

11.10 5 mins questions & discussion

11.15 Tea break

11.30 Dr Malcolm Cooper will talk about the potential opportunities and threats of attaining World Heritage status, from a tourism perspective.

11.50 Dr Elisa Palazzo will talk about mapping territorial heritage with reference to the World Heritage listing of Bethlehem and Battir in Palestine.

12.10pm Panel discussion around questions from the audience

12.30 A lunch workshop in 4 groups in Meeting Rooms 1&2 on level 2 of the Centre, for those who wish to engage more informally with our 4 guest speakers.

1.15 Brief report back to the whole group

1.30 Event ends